Excise Tax Act
(Act 2015-32)

EXCISE TAX REGULATIONS, 2016

The Minister, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section (35) of the Excise Tax Act, makes the following Regulations:

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Excise Tax Regulations, 2016.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations,

“Act” means the Excise Tax Act, 2015 (Act 2015-32);

“authorised person” means a person who is authorised by the warehouse manager to act on his behalf.

Forms

- 3.(1) The forms prescribed for the purposes of the Act and the Regulations are those set out in Forms 1 to 5 of the First Schedule to these Regulations.

- (2) The forms shall be available to the public in electronic format and shall be submitted to the Barbados Revenue Authority using the electronically controlled tax administration system implemented by the Barbados Revenue Authority.

Licence fee

- 4.(1) The fee for a licence under section 6 of the Act is $5 000.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the fee for a licence under section 6 of the Act in respect of a small supplier is $1 000.

Application for a licence

5. A person who wishes to obtain a licence under section 7 of the Act shall apply in the Form 1 set out in the First Schedule.

Application for registration

6. A person who wishes to register as an excise licensee shall apply in the Form 2 set out in the First Schedule.

Excise tax return

7. An excise tax return that is filed in accordance with section 16 of the Act shall be in the Form 3 set out in the First Schedule.

Application for a refund

8. An application for a refund shall be in the Form 4 set out in the First Schedule.

Appeal Form

9. An appeal to the Barbados Revenue Authority Appeal Tribunal, shall be in the Form 5 set out in the First Schedule.

Rates of excise tax

10. The rates of excise tax in respect of taxable goods shall be those taxes that are set out in the Second Schedule.

Specifications of volume and content of alcohol

11. The volume and content of alcohol that is present in a taxable good shall be expressed

- (a) as a percentage of the total volume of the product at a temperature of 20 degrees Celsius; and
- (b) the alcoholic content shall be marked with the words "vol %".

Days and hours of business for warehouses

12.(1) The working days of a warehouse are everyday except Saturdays, Sundays and Public Holidays.

(2) The working hours of a warehouse are from 7:30 am to 5:00 pm on all working days with a one hour lunch break during this period.

Warehousing

13.(1) A warehouse that is contemplated for use for the storage of any taxable goods or for any operation in connection with any taxable goods shall be approved by the Commissioner for the purpose.

(2) The approval referred to in paragraph (1) shall contain such conditions as may be specified by the Commissioner.

(3) Where an excise licensee or his agent breaches a condition of any approval given under this regulation, the Commissioner may

- (a) revoke the approval; or
- (b) refuse to renew the approval.

(4) Where the Commissioner refuses to renew an approval or revokes an approval pursuant to paragraph (3) no additional taxable goods shall be brought to the warehouse where the taxable goods are stored and the duty in respect of all of the taxable goods contained in that warehouse shall be paid or the taxable goods delivered for approved duty free purposes within 6 months of the date of the Commissioner's decision.

(5) An excise licensee who is aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner to refuse to renew an approval or to revoke an approval may appeal the decision to the Barbados Revenue Authority Appeals Tribunal.

Responsibility for good conduct in a warehouse

14.(1) A warehouse manager is responsible for the good conduct of every person who is employed by him in a warehouse.

(2) Every person employed in any capacity in a warehouse shall comply with any reasonable direction or order given by the warehouse manager, or other authorised person.

(3) No person except a person employed in a warehouse shall enter the warehouse without the permission of the warehouse manager or other authorised person.

(4) No person shall take any basket, bag, receptacle, piping or other similar article or apparatus into a warehouse.

Prohibition on smoking in a warehouse

15.(1) No person shall smoke or use naked lights in a warehouse.

(2) Every person shall, before entering a warehouse, deliver to the warehouse manager or to an authorised person all matches, lighters or other combustible materials in his possession or under his control to the warehouse manager or other authorised person.

Powers of search

16.(1) Subject to paragraph (2), during an inspection of a warehouse an officer or authorised person may, upon reasonable suspicion, search any person or any packages which that person has in his possession or under his control when leaving a warehouse.

- (2) A female person may only be searched by an officer or authorised person who is a female.

Records

17.(1) The Commissioner may authorise an excise licensee to deliver taxable goods from his spirits store or warehouse on such conditions as he may impose and may allow the use of commercial documents for all operations.

(2) The Commissioner shall determine the length of time in respect of which the conditions set out in paragraph (1) shall apply and the terms of their renewal.

(3) Where the excise licensee commits a breach of any of the conditions referred to in paragraph (1), the Commissioner shall withdraw the authority.

Spirits

18.(1) A still that is to be licensed by an excise licensee shall be constructed in accordance with the specifications set out in the Third Schedule.

(2) The Commissioner shall specify the conditions under which spirits may be removed from the spirits store of each still.

(3) No person shall remove or permit the removal of any spirits from a spirits store or warehouse unless

- (a) the quantity of spirits to be removed
 - (i) in the case of a spirits store is not less than 75 litres;
 - (ii) in the case of a warehouse is not less than 3.7 litres;
- (b) notice of the removal is recorded in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner;
- (c) the quantity of spirits to be removed is ascertained by an agent of the excise licensee and is recorded in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner;

- (d) in the case of methylated spirits or other denatured spirits, the excise licensee has painted on each package the words "METHYLATED SPIRITS" or "DENATURED SPIRITS" as appropriate, the year the package was filled and the packages for each year are numbered consecutively in letters of not less than 4 centimetres high; and
- (e) the spirits are accompanied by a commercial document that provides details required by the Commissioner and is marked "Customs Permit".

No deposit of taxable goods without a bond

19. No person shall deposit a taxable good in any privately owned warehouse unless that person has entered into a bond with the Commissioner that is

- (a) of an appropriate amount for the security of the duties payable; and
- (b) for the proper performance of his obligation.

Removal of taxable goods from warehouse

20.(1) A taxable good shall not be removed for domestic consumption unless the duty and all other charges are paid.

(2) A taxable good may be delivered from any warehouse before the correct duty at the current rate is paid, but where the taxable good is to be transferred from one warehouse to another or is intended for direct shipment for export or for export as ship's stores, the transfer documents or the appropriate export entries shall be entered into the system prior to delivery.

Conditions for transfer of taxable goods

21.(1) Subject to paragraph (2), no taxable goods may be transferred from one warehouse to another unless the owner of the taxable goods has entered into a bond with security equal to the amount of duty payable on those goods.

(2) The owner of taxable goods referred to in paragraph (1) may, instead of entering a bond on each occasion of removal of the taxable goods for rewarehousing. enter into a general bond to continue in force for a period of 12 months with security in an amount that is approved by the Commissioner.

Conditions for export of taxable goods

22.(1) Subject to paragraph (2), no taxable goods shall be exported or shipped as stores free of duty, unless the exporter of the taxable goods has entered into a bond with security equal to triple the amount of duty payable on those goods.

(2) An exporter of taxable goods referred to in paragraph (1) may, instead of entering into a bond on each occasion of export or shipment of taxable goods as stores, enter into a comprehensive bond with the Commissioner to cover all activities and all the warehouses of that excise licensee in such amount that the Commissioner considers adequate to cover the assessed actual risk to the Customs revenue at any time.

Verification of quantity of spirits for export

23. Every package that contains a taxable good that is intended for export shall be entered into the system by the warehouse manager and where required the package shall be produced to an officer who shall satisfy himself that the actual quantity to be delivered from the warehouse corresponds with the particulars shown on the export entry.

Stock accounts

24. Stock accounts that show the particulars in respect of the receipt warehousing and delivery of spirits from a warehouse and of all other transactions in respect of the spirits shall be kept in electronic format by every excise licensee who is required to enter into a bond.

Vatting and blending

25.(1) Before vatting and blending operations are permitted to commence, a warehouse keeper shall make an application for permission in the Form as set out in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) The operations of vatting and blending spirits and compounds and of making into casks or bottling of spirits and compounds may only be permitted in a warehouse that is approved by the Commissioner for the purpose.

Vats to be numbered

26. Every vat that is used for vatting and blending shall be numbered consecutively and the numbers on each vat shall be painted in conspicuous figures.

Examination of vats and sampling of the contents

27.(1) Where permission for a vatting operation is granted and is being undertaken, the warehouse manager or other authorised person in charge of the operation shall examine the vat, check the numbers on the casks to be used, regauge and test the contents and ensure that the casks are emptied into the vat.

(2) After the vatting process has been completed, the warehouse manager or other authorised person in charge of the operation shall take the strength of a representative sample and enter into the official records and into the system, the dip of the vat, ascertain the volume of spirit strength, the equivalent volume of spirits at 20 degrees Celsius and the quantity in litres of alcohol at 20 degrees Celsius contained in the spirits.

Returns to be entered into the system by the warehouse manager

28.(1) At the close of business on the last working day of each month, the warehouse manager shall make a return to the Commissioner using the system and shall show the taxable goods processed in the warehouse for the particular month.

(2) The warehouse manager is responsible for the accuracy of the return that is entered on the system under subsection (1), and where a physical check by an officer reveals that the return is incorrect in any material respect, the warehouse manager shall be charged the appropriate duty on any deficiency which cannot be accounted for to the satisfaction of the officer.

Forfeiture of taxable goods

29. Where on inspection an officer discovers that taxable goods
- (a) entered to be warehoused are not warehoused; or
 - (b) being warehoused
 - (i) are in any way concealed in or removed therefrom; or
 - (ii) are abstracted from any package or transferred from one package to another
- without the permission of the Commissioner or the officer; or
- (c) being warehoused, are in any way interfered with for the purpose of illegal mixing, removal or concealment
- those taxable goods shall be forfeited.

Checking of warehouse manager's stock

30.(1) A warehouse manager's stock in a warehouse may be checked at such intervals as the officer assigned to the warehouse may from time to time determine and at such time the stock shall be compared with the official records in the system and the duty shall be charged on any deficiency found and which cannot be accounted for to the satisfaction of the officer.

(2) A warehouse manager, his agent or an authorised person shall render any assistance or give any information which an officer may require when taking stock.

Exemptions

31. The following goods are exempt from excise tax:
- (a) goods imported into Barbados
 - (i) wines described under tariff heading number 22.04;
 - (ii) vermouths described under tariff heading number 22 05.00;

- (iii) spirits described under tariff heading number 2206.00;

THIRD SCHEDULE

(Regulation 18(1))

SPECIFICATIONS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF STILLS

1.(1) The following vessels must be erected before a still is licensed and must hereafter be kept during the continuance of the licence:

- (a) 1 spirits receiver; and
- (b) 1 low wines receiver;

but an owner of a still may provide in addition, as many more receivers for spirits or low wines as he may desire.

(2) Where the construction and mode of working of a still are such that low wines are not collected in a separate receiver, in lieu of a receiver, the still must be provided with such fastenings, receptacles, locked and otherwise, apparatus, connections and contrivances as may be directed by the Commissioner or an authorised person.

2. A low wines receiver must be connected with the safe at the end of the worm of the still by one close metal pipe attached to and leading directly from the safe in such manner that all low wines running from the safe into the pipe can be immediately discharged into the receiver and must have fixed to it a pump or discharge cock, that is securely fastened; and every such receiver must also have fixed to it a gauge glass to denote the quantity of low wines therein.

3. A spirits receiver

- (a) must be connected with the safe at the end of the worm of the still by one close metal pipe attached to and leading directly from the safe in such manner that all spirits running from the safe into the pipe can be immediately discharged into the receiver;

- (b) must have fixed in it either a pump or proper discharge cock for drawing off spirits from it which shall be securely fastened; and
 - (c) must have fixed to it a gauge glass to denote the quantity of spirits therein.
- 4. Every low wines receiver must be a close covered vessel and, except as specified in paragraph 3 must not have any opening or communication with any other vessel or utensil, except with another receiver with which it can be connected by a close metal pipe.
- 5. The receiver or receivers must be capable of containing the low wines or spirits, as the case may be, produced by 3 days of distillation.
- 6. The end of the worm must be enclosed and secured in a safe in the manner directed by an authorised person.
- 7. There must be fixed to every still a discharge cock, not more than 3 feet distance from the body of the still, and firmly attached to the still by a close metal pipe; and such discharge cock must be so placed as to be easily accessible to an authorised person.
- 8. Every spirits receiver must be made, placed and fixed to the satisfaction of an authorised person.
- 9. Every pipe used by the distiller must be, unless used exclusively for the discharge of water and spent wash, be so fixed and placed as to be capable of being examined for the whole of its length.
- 10. Every cock and valve kept or used by the owner must be constructed in the manner directed by the authorised person.
- 11. Every receiver must have a sufficient hole cut in it in the manner and form as directed by an authorised person.

12. Each hole in a spirits receiver or low wines receiver must be secured and kept secured to the satisfaction of an authorised person.
13. No alteration may be made in the hole or level of any vessel or utensil without the written permission of an authorised person.
14. All low wines and spirits running from the worm of the still must run directly into the safe at the end of the worm.
15. All low wines must be conveyed directly from the safe into the low wines receiver and thence directly into the still for re-distillation or the low wines may be mixed with wash or be left in custody of the distiller for distillation.
16. All spirits must be conveyed directly from the safe into the spirits receiver.
17. No spirits conveyed into the spirits receiver may be re-distilled or removed from that receiver except into the spirits store.
18. All spirits on removal from a receiver must be immediately conveyed into the spirits store in the presence of an authorised person.
19. Except after notice to, or in the presence of, an authorised person, access may not be had to the end of the worm of any still or to any low wines or spirits from the time of the extraction or distillation thereof in the still until they are accounted for in the proper receiver by that authorised person.
20. Except as permitted or required by the Act or these Regulations, there must be no pipe leading directly or indirectly to or from a still with no opening into or out of a still or the worm of a still.
21. All pipes must be painted in distinguishing colours along their entire lengths in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner.
